

Short Wing Piper Club
“Buckeye Chapter”

May 28, 2019

The next fly-in is Saturday June 8, 2019, at Sky Galley Restaurant, Lunken Airport (KLUK), 3 miles SE of Cincinnati, OH. Details below.

I could not make it to the May fly-in to Bolton Field, but host Bill Colgon sent the following report:

“We had a pretty good time with our limited turnout. Tom Anderson and Leon Awalt were able to fly up, and I taxied my plane over from the T-hangars with my little boy Finn. We also had a newcomer that I hadn't met before-- Brent Lang. He's a retired air traffic controller from Cleveland, so he was able to take Finn and I up for a tour of the tower at Bolton. I'm sorry, but I completely forgot to get a picture of the group.”

Thanks for the report, Bill. I guess P.J.'s BBQ must have been up to its usual standards. Tom Anderson did tell me the air was smooth as a baby's cheek on the flight up from Middletown, but they bumped through numerous pot-holes in the sky on the return flight.
